

3. Teaching Plan

3.1 Curriculum

The teaching plan of Guidance Activity subject uses 2013 Curriculum. 2013 curriculum, schools can decide on the frequency of teaching certain subjects on a weekly basis and on the teaching of local content and also explained that teachers should be able to implement the curriculum and make it suitable for the learning environment (taking into account school). So, 2013 curriculum also can be used as a standard on which to base teaching materials, activities, books and assessments.

3.2 Teaching Plan Related to You Major

Guidance teachers use 2013 curriculum to make a lesson plan because it can help to develop the Guidance plan, the lesson plan, and how to create an effective teaching and learning process in class. In developing the Guidance plan, the teachers determined the materials, the learning activities, the evaluation, the time allocation, and the source of learning which were adjusted with the Standard Competency and the Basic Competence. This Standard Competency and the Basic Competence include the competencies which should be mastered by the students in every level. In developing the lesson plan, the teachers tried to determine the indicator which described the teacher's guide to fulfill the Competency Standard, the goal of learning, the material, the method, the learning steps, the source of learning, and the evaluation.

So, teaching plan is an important and related to Guidance teacher because it helps the teacher in maintaining a standard teaching pattern and does not let the class deviate from the topic.
